A Strike Reported In the Tantamount Group.

E. W. Berry came down from Park City last night and reports that the City last night and reports that the men working on the Tatamount group, adjoining the Steamboat property on the east, have opened up a four-foot yein lying between grainite and lime, which shows splendid looking copner ore. The strike was made Weinseday, and air, Berry, who, with his brother and C. A. Springer, own the property, said he had not had time to either examine it or have assays made on the ore, but he believes he has a good thing.

thing.

At. Berry is also largely interested in the Stemmboat, where he says two shifts are now engaged in pushing work in the tunnel on the property. A large copper helt traverses the Steamboat ground, and the turnel, which is now in a distance of 200 feet is being driven to tap the ore bodies at depth. Another 300 feet will yet have to be run, and when the pending 5-cent assessment is collected the company will likely not in a tower drill plant to fa-company under the concessions granted.

As soon as the Union Pacific agreed to build the spur, early last spring, the matter of securing a right of way was taken up and quickly disposed of, as acceptly holders along the line were not slow to recognize the importance of the undertaking and the good which would necessarily accrue to the town in the way of encouraging the companies interested to work their properties to a fuller capacity; and while no formal announcement has yet been made by the Union Pacific officials that work would begin as stated, the sentleman quoted says there is no question hat what the spur will be built as promised by the company in the beginning.

Mr. Whittaker says that himself and him associates in the Burlington Considered in West Tintic, are highly becased with this opinion of the experts and they are greatly encouraged. So plans will be laid out for future operations.

The mining property at Milford owned by J. H. Erekson of Salt Lake and Nephi Nyborg of this city, is to be opened up this summer and the extraction of ore begun. Mr. Nyborg is now at Tintic, but he will go on out to the other mine in a short time, where he will be met by Mr. Erekson and together they will begin work. The necessary machinery was shipped at Neuhi last week by their men and forwarded to Milford.

The ore has a value in the mine of between $25 and $30 per ton. The entire cost of mining, transportation and milling amounts to about $7.50 per ton, consequently its net value is in the neighborhood of $20. The ore will be shipped to Salt Lake City as fast as

MACHINERY FAMINE. Tintic Development Retarded By

Lack of Equipment. tual machinery famine prevailing in this and contiguous localities perhaps not equalled in the history of mining in Utah. Nine mines are practically at a standastil because of the inability to obtain hoisting power purchased some time ago and promised to arrive weeks past. Then, too, there are five larger properties that are obliged to do the best possible in the way of getting along with about one-half the botler capacity needed. Most of these delayed and incomplete shipments were placed with Sait Lake firms, and while it is pleasing to realize what such an increase in the volume of trade means, if the delay continues through the better part of the summer it will have a tendency to retard big development work, the result of which great hopes are built on. tual muchinery famine prevailing in
